Student Accommodations Checklist for Educators & Parents

If you have a child who does not qualify for special education but has a mental or physical impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, including learning, that child may qualify for special help in a regular classroom setting under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The following list includes areas of concern and possible accommodations that may help your child succeed in the classroom. The list can be used as a reference for parents and school personnel. Original source: Casey Family Programs (www.casey.org).
